On the third floor of a magnificent Haussmann-style cut-stone building, the single 4-bedroom designer apartment offering the ultimate in comfort beautifully reflects the French lifestyle of a certain era. .

It's like living a dream in central Paris...

Firstly, through the impressive size of the reception rooms typical of the late 19th century. The one that draws all eyes is the splendid 60 sq.m. rotunda-type dining room located in the slate-roofed dome topping the corner of the building. Designed to host state dinners, it is perfect for meals among friends or family lunches. With its contemporary designer decoration and its fabulous chandelier replicating the soft glow of candlelight, it offers a view of the Eiffel Tower. A show in its own right that continues on the upper floor with its mezzanine arranged as a home cinema room. This duplex luxury apartment rental with hotel services is ideal for families. Between the services of the housekeeper who comes to serve breakfast each morning and the amenities available in this district of the 16th arrondissement in Paris, life becomes supremely simple.
